The decision to allow, or not allow, an appeal outside of the fourteen (14) day period will be at the sole discretion of the Appeal Manager.

D. Grounds for Appeal

- 8. A decision cannot be appealed on its merits alone or because an Individual (or Individuals) do not like or agree with a decision. An appeal may only be heard if there are sufficient grounds for appeal. Sufficient grounds include that the Respondent decision-maker:

- a) Made a decision that it did not have the authority or jurisdiction (as set out in the Respondent's governing documents) to make;
 - b) Failed to follow its own procedures (as set out in the Respondent's governing documents);
 - c) Made a decision that was influenced by bias (where bias is defined as a lack of neutrality to such an extent that the decision-maker appears not to have considered other views); or
 - d) Made a decision that was grossly unreasonable or grossly unfair.
9. The Appellant must demonstrate, on a balance of probabilities, that the Respondent failed to ensure procedural fairness as described immediately above and that this error had, or may reasonably have had, a material effect on the decision or decision-maker.

Submitting an Appeal

E. Complaint Resolution Officer Decision – Member Organizations

10. A decision made by a Member Organization's Complaint Resolution Officer following a request for reconsideration by one of the Parties pursuant to the Discipline and Complaints Policy may be appealed to Rowing BC in accordance with this Appeal Policy, applied and modified according to the circumstances.
11. Rowing BC shall appoint an Appeal Manager and shall follow the process outlined below, applied, and modified according to the circumstances.
12. Notwithstanding the aforementioned or any provision that says otherwise in this Appeal Policy, the Appeal Manager may only appoint a single member Appeal Panel and, unless Rowing BC agrees otherwise, any fees (for example, the mediator's fees) related to the use of the Dispute Resolution Policy shall be the responsibility of the Parties to the Dispute Resolution process and not the Member Organization or Rowing BC.

F. Complaint Resolution Officer Decision – Rowing BC

13. If a matter is referred directly to Rowing BC's Complaint Resolution Officer, the officer's decision following a request for reconsideration by one of the Parties pursuant to the Discipline and Complaints Policy may be appealed before Rowing BC's Appeal Panel in accordance with the terms of this Appeal Policy.
14. Rowing BC shall appoint an Appeal Manager and shall follow the process outlined below, modified, and applied accordingly based on the circumstances.

G. Discipline Panel Decision – Rowing BC

15. A decision made by Rowing BC's Discipline Panel pursuant to the Discipline and Complaints Policy may be appealed before Rowing BC's Appeal Panel in accordance with the terms of this Appeal Policy.
16. Rowing BC shall appoint an Appeal Manager and shall follow the process outlined below, modified, and applied accordingly based on the circumstances.
17. Any decision by Rowing BC's Appeal Panel in relation to an appeal filed in relation to a Rowing BC Complaint Resolution Officer or Discipline Panel decision shall be final. However, either original Party to the dispute may appeal the Appeal Panel's decision to the Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada (SDRCC) on a fee-for-service basis.

H. Other Decisions

18. Any other Rowing BC decision relating to the matters indicated in Section 4 may be appealed in accordance with the process below. Rowing BC decisions relating to the matters indicated in Sections 4(a)-(d) may be appealed in accordance with the process below, modified, and applied accordingly based on the circumstances. Rowing BC decisions relating to the disciplinary decisions made pursuant to Rowing BC's relevant and applicable policies may be heard as set out immediately above.
19. Rowing BC shall appoint an Appeal Manager and shall follow the process below, modified, and applied accordingly based on the circumstances.

I. Dispute Resolution

20. For appeals filed pursuant to Sections 13, 15 and 18, the Parties may first attempt to resolve the appeal through the Dispute Resolution Policy once the notice of the appeal, the fee, and the information required pursuant to this policy has been received.

J. Screening of Appeal

21. Should the appeal not be resolved by using the Dispute Resolution Policy, Rowing BC will appoint an independent Appeal Manager (who must not be in a conflict of interest or have any direct relationship with the Parties) who has the following responsibilities:
 - a) To determine if the appeal falls under the scope of this Policy
 - b) To determine if the appeal was submitted in a timely manner
 - c) To decide whether there are sufficient grounds for the appeal
22. If the Appeal Manager denies the appeal on the basis of insufficient grounds, because it was not submitted in a timely manner, or because it did not fall under the scope of this Policy, the Appellant will be notified, in writing, of the reasons for this decision.
23. If the Appeal Manager accepts an appeal because it falls under the scope of this Policy, there are sufficient grounds and it was submitted in a timely manner, the Appeal Manager will notify the Parties of their decision in writing and will follow the steps described hereunder.

K. Appointment of Appeal Panel

24. If an appeal is accepted, the Appeal Manager will appoint an appeal panel which shall consist of a single member to hear the appeal.
25. When appointing the appeal panel, the Appeal Manager must select individuals who are impartial, free from any real or perceived conflict of interest (and who shall remain so until a final decision has been rendered or the proceedings have otherwise finally terminated), and who do not have any direct relationship with any of the Parties. Although not a strict requirement, the Appeal Manager should attempt to appoint individuals to the appeal panel who have a legal background and who understand the sport of rowing. When justified by the circumstances, the Appeal Manager may appoint individuals to the appeal panel who have specific areas of expertise that would assist in resolving the matter.

L. Determination of Affected Parties

26. In order to confirm the identification of any Affected Parties, the Appeal Manager will engage Rowing BC. The Appeal Manager may determine whether a party is an Affected Party in their sole discretion.

M. Procedure for Appeal Hearing

27. The Appeal Manager shall notify the Parties that the appeal will be heard. The Appeal Manager, in collaboration with the appeal panel, shall then decide the format under which the appeal will be heard. This decision is at the sole discretion of the Appeal Manager and may not be appealed.

28. If a Party chooses not to participate in the hearing, the hearing may proceed in any event.

29. The format of the hearing may involve an oral in-person hearing, an oral hearing by telephone or other electronic means, a hearing based on a review of documentary evidence submitted in advance of the hearing, a hearing based on documentary submissions alone, or a combination of these methods. The hearing will be governed by the procedures that the Appeal Manager and the appeal panel deem appropriate in the circumstances, provided that:

- a) The Parties have an opportunity to present their respective cases fairly and without one Party being taken by surprise.
- b) The hearing will be held in a timely manner within a timeline determined by the Appeal Manager
- c) The Parties will be given reasonable notice of the day, time and place of an oral in-person hearing or oral hearing by telephone or electronic communications.
- d) Copies of any written documents which the Parties wish to have the appeal panel consider will be provided to all Parties in advance of the hearing
- e) The appealing Party will provide their written documents to the Respondent first, followed by the Respondent providing their written documents to the appealing Party in response, with each Party being given adequate time to provide their respective materials.
- f) The Parties may be accompanied by a representative, advisor, or legal counsel at their own expense
- g) The appeal panel may request that any other individual participate and give evidence at an oral in-person hearing or oral hearing by telephone or electronic communications.
- h) The appeal panel may allow as evidence at the hearing any oral evidence and document or thing relevant to the subject matter of the appeal, but may exclude such evidence that is unduly repetitious and shall place such weight on the evidence as it deems appropriate
- i) Any Affected Party shall be permitted to make submissions and file evidence before the appeal panel. The appeal panel's decision is binding on any Affected Party. The decision to uphold or reject the appeal will be by a majority vote of the appeal panel members, except in cases where the panel consists of a single member

30. In fulfilling its duties, the appeal panel may obtain independent advice.

N. Appeal Decision

31. The appeal panel shall issue its decision, in writing and with reasons, within fourteen (14) days after the hearing's conclusion. In making its decision, the appeal panel will have no greater authority than that of the original decision-maker. The appeal panel may decide to:
- a) Reject the appeal and confirm the decision being appealed
 - b) Uphold the appeal, in whole or in part, and refer the matter back to the initial decision-maker for a new decision
 - c) Uphold the appeal, in whole or in part, and vary the decision
 - d) Determine whether costs of the appeal, excluding legal fees and legal disbursements of any Parties, may be assessed against any Party. In assessing costs, the appeal panel will take into account the nature and amount of the costs, the outcome of the appeal, the conduct of the Parties, and the Parties' respective financial resources
32. The appeal panel's written decision, with reasons, will be distributed to all Parties, the Appeal Manager, and Rowing BC. In extraordinary circumstances, the appeal panel may first issue a verbal or summary decision soon after the hearing's conclusion, with the full written decision to be issued thereafter. The decision will be considered a matter of public record unless a Party otherwise makes a request to the appeal panel and the panel orders that the decision, in whole or in part, remain confidential.
33. Subject to Section 17 above, the appeal panel's decision is final and binding on the Parties.

O. Timelines

34. If the circumstances of the appeal are such that adhering to the timelines outlined by this Policy will not allow a timely resolution to the appeal, the Appeal Manager and/or Panel may direct that these timelines be revised.

P. Confidentiality

35. The appeals process is confidential and involves only the Parties, the Appeal Manager, the Panel, and any independent advisors to the Panel. Once initiated and until a decision is released, none of the Parties will disclose confidential information to any person not involved in the proceedings.
36. Any failure to respect the aforementioned confidentiality requirement may result in disciplinary action being taken against the Individual(s) in accordance with Rowing BC's relevant and applicable policies.

Q. Privacy

37. The collection, use and disclosure of any personal information pursuant to this Policy is subject to Rowing BC's Privacy Policy.
38. Rowing BC or any of its delegates pursuant to this Policy (i.e., Appeal Manager, appeal panel) shall comply with Rowing BC's Privacy Policy in the performance of their services under this Policy.
