A. Purpose

1. The purpose of this Policy is to address how investigations will be conducted when necessary and as determined by the Independent Third Party pursuant to the Discipline and Complaints Policy.
2. Investigations shall only be conducted when the Independent Third Party considers that there is a need for an independent assessment to determine whether an allegation (or, where there are several allegations), which allegations, should be heard by a discipline panel pursuant to the Discipline and Complaints Policy because they constitute a likely breach of the BC Universal Code of Conduct and/or the Code of Conduct and Ethics, the Social Media Policy, the Athlete Protection Policy, or any other relevant and applicable Rowing BC policy (this process may also be used to determine whether allegations are frivolous, vexatious or made in bad faith).

B. Investigation

3. The Independent Third Party shall appoint the investigator, taking into consideration the financial resources of Rowing BC.
4. The investigator must be an independent third party with training or investigation experience. The investigator must not be in a conflict of interest situation and should have no connection to either Party.
5. Provincial legislation related to Workplace Harassment or Workplace Violence will apply to the investigation if Harassment/Violence was directed toward a worker in a Workplace. The investigator should review workplace safety legislation, the Workplace Violence and Workplace Harassment Policy, Rowing BC's policies for human resources, and/or may consult independent experts to determine whether legislation applies to the Reported complaint.
6. The investigation may take any form as decided by the investigator, guided by any applicable Provincial legislation. The investigation may include:
 - a) Interviews with the Complainant(s);
 - b) Witness interviews; and
 - c) Interviews with the Respondent(s).

C. Investigator's Report

7. Upon completion of their investigation, the investigator shall prepare a report that includes a summary of evidence from the Parties and any witnesses interviewed. The report shall include an executive summary, which Rowing BC may share separately from the full report with the Parties.
8. The investigator's report shall contain a non-binding opinion regarding whether an allegation or, where there are several allegations, which allegations, should be heard by a discipline panel pursuant to the Discipline and Complaints Policy because they constitute a likely breach of the BC Universal Code of Conduct and/or the Code of Conduct and Ethics, the Social Media Policy, the Athlete Protection Policy, or any other relevant and applicable Rowing BC policy. The investigator may also give a non-binding opinion regarding whether the allegations are frivolous, vexatious or made in bad faith.⁷ Finally, the investigator may make non-binding recommendations regarding the appropriate next steps (i.e., mediation, disciplinary procedures, further review or investigation).
9. Where necessary to protect the identity of any person that participated in the investigation, the investigator may redact names and anonymize any witness testimony that may result in the identification of the individual.
10. If a discipline panel is convened for a matter, any portion of the investigator's report which is provided to the discipline panel must also be disclosed to the Parties. If the investigator's non-binding opinion is provided to the discipline panel, then the entirety of the investigator's report must be provided to the Parties.
11. The investigator's report will be provided to the Independent Third Party who will disclose it to Rowing BC, which may disclose, at its discretion, either the full report or only the executive summary to the Parties. If necessary, and at the discretion of the Independent Third Party, other relevant Parties may be provided with an executive summary of the investigator's findings. RCA will be provided with a copy of the investigator's full report if the investigation has been conducted under the authority of Rowing BC; however, RCA shall not disclose the report to any third party without Rowing BC's express written consent.
12. The investigator's report shall be used for the purposes described in this Policy and in the investigations section of the Discipline and Complaints Policy.
13. The investigation report and any executive summary shall remain confidential once disclosed to Rowing BC, RCA, the Complainant and Respondent or any other relevant party. Any failure to respect this provision may be subject to a complaint and disciplinary measures being taken pursuant to the Discipline and Complaints Policy.

⁷ The Sport Dispute Resolution Centre of Canada's Investigation Guidelines suggests that a Reported complaint shall not be characterized as vexatious if the evidence demonstrates that there was a reasonable basis for filing and pursuing it. For a complaint to be considered to have been made in bad faith, the investigator must consider that it was filed consciously for a dishonest purpose or due to the moral underhandedness of the Complainant and that there was an intention to mislead.

14. Should the investigator find that there are possible instances of offence under the Criminal Code, particularly related to Criminal Harassment (or Stalking), Uttering Threats, Assault, Sexual Interference, or Sexual Exploitation, the investigator shall advise the Complainant or Rowing BC to refer the matter to police.
15. The investigator must also inform Rowing BC of any findings of criminal activity. Rowing BC may decide whether to report such findings to police but is required to inform the police if there are findings related to the trafficking of Prohibited Substances or Methods (as indicated in the version of the World Anti-Doping Agency's Prohibited List currently in force), any sexual crime involving Minors, or any suspected child Maltreatment, fraud against Rowing BC, or other offences where the lack of reporting would bring Rowing BC into disrepute.

D. Reprisal and Retaliation

16. An Individual who Reports a complaint to the Independent Third Party or who gives evidence in an investigation may not be subject to reprisal or retaliation from any individual or group. Any such conduct may constitute Maltreatment and will be subject to disciplinary proceedings pursuant to the Discipline and Complaints Policy.

E. False Allegations

17. An Individual who submits allegations that the investigator determines to be malicious, false or for the purpose of retribution, retaliation, or vengeance (or that otherwise fall within the definition of Maltreatment) may be subject to a complaint under the terms of the Discipline and Complaints Policy. The investigator may recommend to Rowing BC that the Individual be required to pay for the costs of any investigation that comes to this conclusion. Any Individual who is liable to pay for such costs shall be automatically deemed to be not in good standing until the costs are paid in full and shall be prohibited from participating in any Rowing BC Events, activities, or business. Rowing BC, the Member Organization, or the Individual against whom the allegations were submitted, may act as the Complainant with respect to making a complaint pursuant to this section.

F. Confidentiality

18. The investigator will protect confidentiality to the extent possible and shall only share information on a need-to-know basis. However, the investigator may need to share information in order to ensure that natural justice has been served.

G. Privacy

19. The collection, use and disclosure of any personal information pursuant to this Policy is subject to Rowing BC's Privacy Policy.
20. The Independent Third Party, Rowing BC, or any of its delegates pursuant to this Policy (i.e., the investigator) shall comply with Rowing BC's Privacy Policy in the performance of their services under this Policy.
